

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

Magistrate No.
05M-1035-JGD

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

ADRIANO X. AMARO

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER OF DETENTION

March 1, 2005

DEIN, M.J.

The defendant is charged in a criminal complaint with possession and conspiracy to possess fraudulent or stolen identification documents in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1546(a), 1028(a)(6) and (f), and 371. An initial appearance was held on February 17, 2005, at which time the government moved for detention on the grounds that the defendant poses a serious risk of flight under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)(A). The defendant was represented by counsel at the initial appearance.

A detention hearing was held before this court on March 1, 2005, at which time the defendant was represented by counsel. At the hearing the defendant, through counsel, waived his right to a detention hearing at this time, and consented to the entry of an order of detention.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the defendant be DETAINED pending trial, and it is further ORDERED --

- (1) That the defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) That the defendant be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request by an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is detained and confined deliver the defendant to an authorized Deputy United States Marshal for the purpose of any appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

This order is without prejudice to the defendant filing a motion at any time seeking a hearing for the purpose of considering conditions of release, regardless whether there have been changed circumstances.
